

Assisted Living Program

 Justice Resource Institute

75R Amory St. Boston, Massachusetts 02119 Phone: 857-399-1915 Fax: 857-399-1901

A Division of Justice Resource Institute
1991-2015 over 20 Years of Service
"Where no one is forgotten"

Enclosed are Program Descriptions for each of the JRI Health Housing Programs. Each Program Provides supportive services and housing to participants who are disabled due to HIV/AIDS, low income and who are homeless or at risk of becoming homeless. Attached is an application for the JRI Health Housing Programs. Please Mark an X for the programs that you are interested in being placed on that waitlist. If you have any questions regarding JRI programs or application, Please don't hesitate to contact me, Susan Buoncuore, Director of the JRI Assisted Living Program at # 857-399-1915 ext. 2424.

JRI Health Housing Programs

River Street Community:

_____ River Street Community provides supportive services and subsidized housing for up to thirteen individuals in a Boston Housing apartment building located in Mattapan. Each of the thirteen units is efficiency or a small one – bedroom unit. Units are subsidized through the Boston Housing Authority. River Street Staff offer ongoing support through individual service Plans and on an as-needed basis.

Huntington at Symphony:

_____ This program is located in a 90-unit condo building on Huntington Avenue in Boston. There are 25 efficiency units for individuals and families. All units are subsidized through the Boston Housing Authority. Staffing is available 24 hours per day. This program offers ongoing support through its housing staff.

The Assisted Living Program:

_____ This Program provides access to specially set-aside rental subsidies for individuals and families. ALP partners with Metropolitan Boston Housing Partnership in Boston. MBHP administers rental assistance, or subsidies. ALP provides ongoing support and stabilization. Besides the Greater Boston program, ALP works with housing authorities in Plymouth Bristol County and Essex County to work with those individuals and families through our expanded program TBRA PLUS.
