OTHER: Lindencroft, a program of JRI, is a 24-hour group home which serves adolescent females through a comprehensive network of services located in Berkley, Massachusetts. It is licensed by the Department of Early Education and Care. The program provides a comprehensive array of clinically sound and sophisticated services designed to serve female adolescent youth and their families.

AGENCY SUMMARY:

Justice Resource Institute is a non-profit 501(c)(3) human services agency. JRI is dedicated to addressing the most confounding challenges of both the human services and educational systems and the persons and families these systems were created to serve. JRI pursues the social justice inherent in opening doors to opportunity and independence. Although our range of services is as varied as those we serve, our approach is uniformly characterized by compassionate support, innovation, and community leadership. We work in partnership with individuals, families, communities and government to address their shared challenges in a comprehensive, coordinated, systematic, and effective manner. JRI seeks new knowledge and improved evidence-based practice, in research and in the field, in order to inform our continuous search for excellence in service.
