

Here are some virtual events to celebrate Juneteenth. And since they are virtual – you can participate from anywhere!! From Afro dance fusion, wellness and meditation, panel discussions, virtual book fairs with author guest speakers, film screenings to musical festivals. This is not an exhaustive list – if you have an event or celebration to share send them to marketing@jri.org

JUNE 18

FREE - Musical festival starting June 18 @ 11am through June 19 1am

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/jack-daniels-honey-presents-juneteenth-music-festival-feat-dj-jazzy-jeff-tickets-107387185964?aff=ebdssbonlinesearch> or to learn more www.JuneteenthMusicFestival.com.

FREE - Virtual screening of short films curated by the Denton Black Film Festival (DBFF) and talks with the filmmakers about their films and upcoming projects from 8pm-10pm

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/juneteenth-20-virtual-pop-up-film-event-tickets-107636389338?aff=ebdssbonlinesearch>

JUNE 19

FREE – Afro Dance Fusion Session with Kiara Ross Paige of CarNYval Dancers from 12:00pm-1:30pm

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/juneteenth-2020-afro-dance-fusion-online-session-tickets-107110191466?aff=erellivmlt>

FREE - Boston's Juneteenth Committee presents the 10th Annual Juneteenth Emancipation Observance from 1pm-2pm <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/bostons-10th-annual-juneteenth-emancipation-observance-2020-virtual-tickets-100434781134?aff=ebdssbonlinesearch>

Donation (pay as you wish) - Celebrate black minds through breath work, meditation, and reflection of past, present and future from 2:00pm-2:30pm <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/juneteenth-virtual-meditation-tickets-108066337324?aff=ebdssbonlinesearch>

FREE - A historical webinar about Juneteenth, the anniversary of the day that former slaves in Texas finally learned they were free from 2:30pm-3:30pm <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/juneteenth-webinar-tickets-109647452482?aff=ebdssbonlinesearch>

FREE – Sponsored by Girl Scouts of Eastern Massachusetts a safe space to have age-appropriate discussions on the history and significance of racial injustice and using your voice through art from 3:30PM-4:30 PM for girls in Kindergarten through grade 5 and 5-6 PM for girls in grades 6-12 and adults https://www.gsema.org/en/events-repository/2020/lift-your-voice-juneteenth-celebration.html?fbclid=IwAR2RuYdKWKN1gDiyuG8E-QCBVzziI2yXhQRHkea7sbSrRnNvCt_M7wT3tg

FREE – Panel discussion on the intersection of wellness and liberation from 3pm-5pm

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/virtual-juneteenth-wellness-panel-tickets-109375930352?aff=erellivmlt>

FREE – Live streaming panel discussion to honor the contributions of Black creatives, scholars and artist to the City of Boston from 4pm-7pm <https://www.mfa.org/event/community-celebrations/juneteenth>

FREE - Juneteenth market and celebration in Queens, NY and Juneteenth Virtual Pop up Shop by BlaQue Resource Network from 6:30pm-8:30pm <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/juneteenth-virtual-pop-up-shop-by-blaque-resource-network-tickets-109316632992?aff=ebdssbonlinesearch>

$5 ticket fee (or donation) - An African American cultural celebration while learning how best to ally with people of color in Boston, MA from 7pm-9pm <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/juneteenth-allyboston-tickets-108927992558?aff=ebdssbonlinesearch>

June 19-21

FREE - Detroit Book City's Juneteenth Black Author Virtual Book Fair 2020 with lively discussions every 15 minutes to celebrate freedom through literacy from June 19 @ 6pm to June 21 4pm
<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/detroit-book-citys-juneteenth-black-author-virtual-book-fair-2020-tickets-106123271562?aff=erellivmlt>

JUNE 22

FREE – March from the Reggie Lewis Track and Athletic Center to the State house in honor of Rayshard Brooks from 2pm-5pm Juneteenth for Rayshard Brooks, June 22nd 2pm-5pm, Reggie Lewis Track and Athletic Center

*And to see what is going on in your area – check out <https://patch.com/> and enter your zip code!