

Justice Resource Institute Internship and Field Placement Opportunities

JRI Site Name	Location	Program Type/Specialty	Supervision Requirements	Contact Information
Anchor Academy	Middleboro, MA	Day School for middle and high school-aged students who have social, emotional and behavioral challenges.	Accepts both BA and MA students; LICSW and LMFT on site	Lauren Cohen, LICSW 508-947-0131 x3765 lcohen@jri.org
Bay Cove Academy	Brookline, MA	Day School for middle and high school-aged students who have social, emotional and behavioral challenges. Students interested in Vocational Counseling, Transition Counseling, or Guidance Counseling are also encouraged to apply to intern as part of our Career Development Program. The intern will support the Director of Career Development and the Student Support Counselor in assisting students that participate in on and off campus work opportunities, meet with students to explore career options and interests, and teach career related curriculum.	Accepts MA students only LICSW on site Accepts Counseling Students (Vocational Transition, or Guidance) at BA or MA level	Shana Turowitz, Clinical Director 617-739-1794 x243 sturowitz@jri.org
Berkshire Meadows	Housatonic, MA	Day, residential and medical services for children and adults with developmental disabilities. Direct experience with people with complex conditions that include autism and a wide variety	BA Nursing Students who have completed academic requirements	Liisa Kelly 413-528-2523 x2108 lkelly@jri.org
Boston GLASS	Jamaica Plain, MA	Continuum of services to LGBTQ+ youth of color and their allies in the Greater Boston area. Drop-in center, group interventions, counseling services	Digital Marketing Associate, Bachelors, Masters	Social Media intern inquires: Shaquille Jones (he/him), sijones@jri.org

Justice Resource Institute Internship and Field Placement Opportunities

JRI Site Name	Location	Program Type/Specialty	Supervision Requirements	Contact Information
Boston GLASS	Jamaica Plain, MA	Continuum of services to LGBTQ+ youth of color and their allies in the Greater Boston area. Drop-in center, group interventions, counseling services	Bachelors, Masters, Mezzo, Clinical	Public Health intern inquires: Shaquille Jones (he/him), sijones@jri.org Clinical intern inquiry: Davine Holness (she/her) dholness@jri.org
CBS Cape Cod	Yarmouthport, MA	Services include intensive care coordination, in-home and outpatient therapies, mentoring services, in-home behavioral support, parent/caregiver support and education	Accepts both first and second year MA students; LICSW supervision	Meghan Robitaille mrobitaille@jri.org 508-771-2402
Children's Friend and Family Services – Gloucester Site	Gloucester, MA	Outpatient Clinic, In-Home Therapy, Therapeutic Mentoring	Accepts 2nd year MSW/MA	Crystal Contrino ccontrino@jri.org
Children's Friend and Family Services – Merrimack Valley	Lawrence, MA and Chelmsford, MA	Outpatient Clinic, In-Home Therapy, IBHS, Therapeutic Mentoring, Community Service Agency, Parents as Teachers Home Visiting Program	Accepts both BA and MA students; LICSW and LMHC supervision	Amy Ackroyd aackroyd@jri.org
Children's Friend and Family Services – Lynn Site	Lynn, MA	Outpatient Clinic, In-Home Therapy, Therapeutic Mentoring, Community Service Agency	Accepts both BA and MA students; LICSW and LMHC supervision	Matthew Peiken 781-691-7564 mpeiken@jri.org
Children's Friend and Family Services – Salem Site	Salem, MA	Outpatient Clinic, In-Home Therapy, Therapeutic Mentoring, Positive Alternatives to Student Suspension Program	Accepts both BA and MA students; LICSW and LMHC supervision	Kelsey Tam, LICSW ktam@jri.org
Community Service Agency-Cape Cod	Yarmouthport, MA	Coordination of care for youth with social, emotional or behavioral challenges and their families	Accepts both BA and MA students	Megan Kenney Program Director mkenney@jri.org 508-771-3156 x 2672
Community Service Agency-Dimock	Jamaica Plain, MA	Intensive care coordination for youth with social, emotional or behavioral challenges and their families, parent/caregiver support and education	2nd year MSW or MA students only. LICSW and LMFT supervision on site	Fran Gannon 617-522-0650 fgannon@jri.org

Justice Resource Institute Internship and Field Placement Opportunities

JRI Site Name	Location	Program Type/Specialty	Supervision Requirements	Contact Information
Developing Abilities	Framingham, MA	Residential, employment, day habilitation programs, individual supports across a variety of settings to individuals who have developmental disabilities, their families, state agencies and advocates.	Accepts nursing students- clinical supervision not provided	Helen Beales (508) 872-0669 x2220 hbeales@jri.org
Early Childhood Training & Consultation	Taunton, MA	multi-disciplinary team of early childhood, mental health, education, and special education professionals who provide training and consultation to childcare programs, providers, and families with children ages birth through 14	Accepts both BA and MA students	Stacey Gay 774-501-7715 sgay@jri.org
Equine Facilitated Services	Marshfield, MA Tewksbury, MA Lancaster, MA	Equine Therapy for children and adolescents ages 6-22. Previous experience with horses required.	Accepts second year MA/MSW students; LICSW and supervision on site	Meredith Norton, LICSW 978-434-6097 mnorton@jri.org
FOCUS	Fall River, MA	Provides temporary emergency shelter, diversion services, case management, and stabilization services to families who are homeless or at-risk of becoming homeless.	Accepts both BA and MA students	Bonnie Paiva 608-617-4359 bpaiva@jri.org
Foster Care & Adoption	Berkley, MA	Matching caring people and safe homes with children and teens who need someone to support, nurture, and encourage them. Age: birth through 21 *does not offer therapy	Associates, Bachelors, and if appropriate Master's level depending on requirements	Robert Costa 508-821-7774 rcosta@jri.org
Glenhaven Academy	Marlboro, MA	Co-ed; residential program, trauma, clinical, special education and nursing learning opportunities, ages 12-22	Accepts both MSW/MA candidates; LMHC and LICSW supervision	Rachel Vishniac LMHC, ATR 508-481-8077 x205 rvishniac@jri.org Julie Mills 508-481-8077 x215 jmills@jri.org
GRIP CBS	Holyoke, MA	Community Based Services, therapeutic mentoring, in-home family therapy	Accepts both BA and MA students	Morganne Crouser 978-799-7397 mcrouser@jri.org

Justice Resource Institute Internship and Field Placement Opportunities

JRI Site Name	Location	Program Type/Specialty	Supervision Requirements	Contact Information
GRIP Group Home	Lowell, MA	Co-ed, group home setting for adolescents 16-22	Accepts both BA and MSW students	Valerie Krpata vkrpata@jri.org 617-694-3853
Health Law Institute	Boston, MA	The JRI Health Law Institute (HLI), a program of JRI Health, provides direct legal services to individuals living with HIV/AIDS through a medical-legal partnership with health centers, HIV/AIDS providers and medical case managers throughout the Commonwealth. All legal services are provided using a client-centered, trauma-informed approach that prioritizes client health.	Accepts Legal Interns (2L or 3L JD students)	Sara Benjamin, Esq. sbenjamin@jri.org 857-399-1910
IT Department	Fall River, MA Needham, MA	General Technology Support	Basic IT knowledge	Roody Herold 508-822-8588 rherold@jri.org
Journey Home	Attleboro, MA	Group home for youth with complex trauma who identify as male, ages 12- 22. Journey Home utilizes the ARC trauma model for treatment. Ideal intern candidates enjoy fast paced work environments, working as part of a team, are creative, self-motivated and outside-of the-box thinkers. Interns will receive training in: treatment planning, writing biopsychosocial, clinical assessment methods, diagnostics/differential diagnoses, working within the Foster Care System, working within the mental health system, basic neuro, different clinical modalities and different clinical theories. Interns will have a caseload, weekly supervision and group supervision.	Accepts MSW Students and BA level interns in any human services field. Administrative interns also welcome to apply. Accepts OT Students We do not currently have someone who can supervise LMHC candidates.	Lexi Klupchak 781-445-4457 aklupchak@jri.org

Justice Resource Institute Internship and Field Placement Opportunities

JRI Site Name	Location	Program Type/Specialty	Supervision Requirements	Contact Information
Lindencroft	Berkley, MA	Group home for youth with complex trauma who identify as female, ages 12- 22. Journey Home utilizes the ARC trauma model for treatment. Ideal intern candidates enjoy fast paced work environments, working as part of a team, are creative, self-motivated and outside-of the-box thinkers. Interns will receive training in: treatment planning, writing biopsychosocial, clinical assessment methods, diagnostics/differential diagnoses, working within the Foster Care System, working within the mental health system, basic neuro, different clinical modalities and different clinical theories. Interns will have a caseload, weekly supervision and group supervision.	Accepts MSW interns and BA level interns in any human services field. Administrative interns also welcome to apply. We do not currently have someone who can supervise LMHC candidates.	Lexi Klupchak 781-445-4457 aklupchak@jri.org
Littleton Academy	Littleton, MA	Co-ed residential school setting for latency age, trauma, clinical, milieu	Accepts BA, MA, MSW, MS (Counseling track only), LICSW and LMHC supervision provided	Stephen Rose scrose@jri.org Shannon Siracusa ssiracusa@jri.org
Long Term Services and Support (LTSS)	Jamaica Plain, MA	Provides care coordination for youth ages 3-21 with complex medical needs, primarily youth with developmental, intellectual, and/or physical disabilities.	Accepts 1st year MSW students - not recommended for students wanting a clinical/therapy experience but could be appropriate for 2nd year macro student	Vigny Fong, LICSW 617-522-0650 x2836 vfong@jri.org
Marketing	Fall River, MA		BA only	Holly Mazelli 508-821-7777 x3116 hmazelli@jri.org
Meadowridge Academy	Swansea, MA	Co-ed; residential program, trauma, clinical, special education ages 12-22	Accepts both BA and MA students	Erin Lunn 508-677-0304 x3512 elunn@jri.org

Justice Resource Institute Internship and Field Placement Opportunities

JRI Site Name	Location	Program Type/Specialty	Supervision Requirements	Contact Information
Merrimack Valley CBS	Chelmsford, MA	Services include intensive care coordination, in-home and outpatient therapies, mentoring services, in-home behavioral support, parent/caregiver support and education	Accepts both first and second year MA students; LICSW and LMHC supervision on site	Kate Engel, LMHC Program Director kengel@jri.org 617-947-9582
Metro Boston CBS	Jamaica Plain, MA	Services include in-home and outpatient therapies, mentoring services, in-home behavioral support	Accepts second year MA/MSW students; LICSW and supervision on site	Raoul Robert, LMHC rerobert@jri.org 617-237-7008
MetroWest CBS	Acton, MA	Services include intensive care coordination, in-home and outpatient therapies, mentoring services, in-home behavioral support, parent/caregiver support and education	Accepts both first and second year MA students; LICSW and LMHC supervision on site	Benjamin Broderick bbroderick@jri.org
My Life My Choice	Boston, MA	Continuum of services focused on the commercial sexual exploitation of children. Survivor Mentoring, Intensive case management, prevention groupwork, training and thought leadership.	Accepts MSW students- 1st year placement only	Amy Corbett, LMHC 617-869-8757 acorbett@jri.org Olivia Angood-Hardy oangoodhardy@jri.org
Northeast Behavioral Health Center	Willimantic, CT	Outpatient therapy services, In-home therapy, case management and coordination	Accepts MA students
PACT	Jamaica Plain, MA	Provides intensive, community-based care to people living with HIV/AIDS who are having challenges navigating their healthcare and treatment. Services include the coordination of and accompaniment to medical appointments, home visits to assist with medication management and adherence, as well as education and support regarding healthcare and health-related issues to promote improved health outcomes and self-sufficiency.	Administrative Support (Data-Entry)	Katie Johnson kjohnson@jri.org

Justice Resource Institute Internship and Field Placement Opportunities

JRI Site Name	Location	Program Type/Specialty	Supervision Requirements	Contact Information
Pelham Academy	Lexington, MA	Female, residential program, trauma, clinical, special education and nursing learning opportunities, ages 12-22	Accepts graduate level students only	Stephanie Hutter, LMHC Assistant Clinical Director (781) 274-6800 x3715 shutter@jri.org
Rediscovery	Waltham, MA	Rediscovery is a group home for youth with complex trauma who identify as male, ages 16-22. Rediscovery utilizes the ARC trauma model for treatment. Ideal intern candidates enjoy fast-paced work environments, working as part of a team, are creative, self-motivated and outside-of-the-box thinkers. Interns will receive training in: treatment planning, writing biopsychosocial, clinical assessment methods, diagnostics/differential diagnoses, working within the Foster Care System, working within the mental health system, basic neuro, different clinical modalities and different clinical theories. Interns will have a coseload, weekly supervision and group supervision.	BA candidates in any human services field and Master of Social Work candidates. Summer and Sept-May internships available. We do not currently have someone who can supervise LMHC candidates.	Lexi Klupchak, LICSW 781-445-4457 aklupchak@jri.org
Service Navigator	Fall River, MA	This is an opportunity to assess and be exposed to the needs of the community. You will support families while monitoring and participating in the navigator (resource inquiry) line at JRI. You will also have opportunities to participate in best practices for policy development through participation and facilitation of JRI's family advisory council meetings. This is not direct clinical hours, however it provides a systems perspective on service delivery.	Accepts Associates and Bachelors level, possibly Master in Public Administration or Political Science.	Rachel Arruda rarruda@jri.org (508)523-7486

Justice Resource Institute Internship and Field Placement Opportunities

JRI Site Name	Location	Program Type/Specialty	Supervision Requirements	Contact Information
Southeast Behavioral Health Center	Taunton, MA	Opportunities for both in home family therapy experience and outpatient	2nd year MA/LMHC track students only at this time	Christina Patts 508-207-8819 cpatts@jri.org
STRIVE	Dorchester, MA	Program serves adults 18+ who come from under-served communities, those who have been disconnected from the workforce – whether through layoffs or incarceration, military service, or personal troubles. We serve individuals with significant barriers to employment, but who want to work.	Accepts Associates and Bachelors level students	Kathy Traylor 617-825-1800 ktraylor@jri.org
Susan Wayne Center of Excellence	Thompson, CT	Residential and Day school, co-ed, ages 10-20, cognitively impairment with concurrent behavioral, mental health, and medical issues	Accepts both BA and MA students	Jared Tobias 860-928-5900x4229 jtobias@jri.org Amy Kreidemaker 860-928-5900 x4240 akreidemaker@jri.org
Swansea Wood School	Swansea, MA	Co-ed; residential program, trauma, mild to moderate cognitive challenges, clinical, special education and nursing learning opportunities, ages 12-22	Accepts Associates, BA and MA students	Christin Cranshaw 508-672-6560 x 3425 ccranshaw@jri.org John Medeiros Program Director jmedeiros@jri.org 508-672-6560 3424
The Center for Trauma and Embodiment	Needham, MA	Experiences of psychological trauma profoundly change our relationship to our body. The Center for Trauma and Embodiment at JRI is dedicated to researching, developing and training providers in effective, trauma-informed practices that help survivors safely re-connect to their body so that they may engage more fully with their life.	Currently CFTE has one master's level internship placement to offer per year. Candidates pursuing a degree in counseling or social work are encouraged to apply.	Please email a brief statement of interest, academic requirements, and resume to Jennifer Turner, jturner@jri.org by 2/1/2020 to be considered for the 2020 academic year.

Justice Resource Institute Internship and Field Placement Opportunities

JRI Site Name	Location	Program Type/Specialty	Supervision Requirements	Contact Information
Total Achievement Program	Yarmouthport, MA	Therapeutic afterschool program for ages 6-12, hours must include 2:30-5:30pm	Accepts both BA and MA students	Sherry White 508-420-7401 swhite@jri.org
Total Achievement Program	New Bedford, MA	Therapeutic afterschool program for ages 6-12, hours must include 2:00-5:30pm	Accepts BA/BSW	Riley Oliver 508-745-1024 roliver@jri.org
Total Achievement Program	Norton, MA	Therapeutic afterschool program for ages 6-12, hours must include 2:30-5:30pm	Accepts BA only	Cara Kuczarski, LICSW 508-285-4364 X201 ckuczarski@jri.org
Victor School	Acton, MA	Therapeutic day school, co-ed, ages 12-22, student teaching opportunities available but must finish school year (mid-June)	Accepts both BA and MA students	Wendy Rosenblum 978-266-199 wrosenblum@jri.org
Walden Street School	Concord, MA	Female, residential program, trauma, clinical, special education and nursing learning opportunities, ages 12-22	Accepts both BA and MA students	Katie Cipriano 978-369-7611 x208 kcipriano@jri.org
Youth Harbors	Roxbury, MA	Serves homeless and housing insecure youth, ages 18-24, providing case management. Most of the youth are enrolled in high schools in the Greater Boston and Lynn public school districts, unaccompanied and struggle to engage in school.	Accepts both BA and MA students	Jonathan Regis 617-716-9215 jregis@jri.org