

UPCOMING EVENTS

Winter 2026 Free Live Parenting Webinars:

Email Imatthews@jri.org to register

JAN 29

1:00 to
2:00 PM

Motor Development for 0-18 Months

Join Christina Marinelli, DPT for information on your baby's gross and fine motor skill development which are the building blocks to your baby's ability to explore their environment and build new skills as they grow.

FEB 12

7:00 to
8:00 PM

Understanding Threenagers

Join Ellie Springer, M.Ed, to learn what is typical behavior in 3 year olds in terms of independence and emotions, and how you can support your child and make life a little smoother for your family.

FEB
26

7:00 to
8:00 PM

What Behaviors Tell Us: Understanding Your Child's Communication

Join a panel of early childhood experts to learn how children use behavior to communicate their needs, emotions & developing skills. Take away strategies to better understand their actions

MAR 12

8:00 to
9:00 PM

How Limits Create Safety and Security for the Developing Brain.

Chrissy Dagostino, M.A., will share why limit setting is necessary, common pitfalls, and practical tips for following thru when met with your child's emotions, resistance and push-back.

MAR
19

10:00 to
11:00 AM

Pelvic Floor Health for New Moms

Emerson Health Pelvic Health Physical Therapy Specialists will describe symptoms of pelvic floor dysfunction and how it can be treated so you can return to your pre-delivery activities with more comfort.